

Journalism

Supervisor: Sue Sprenkle

Positions: 2

Job Duties: Perform various tasks in the process of publication and maintenance of the CrusaderNews.com. Job projects may include but are not limited to the following: paperwork, design, updates, or maintenance of CrusaderNews.com; plus required computer work, possible photo assignments, journalism interviews, social media, story or column writing, page design, or distribution of newspaper. This position does entail duties that require the student to be on campus outside of business hours and/or off campus; such as interviews, photography or videography. Therefore, there will be times when the student is not directly supervised.

Skills Needed: Knowledge or the ability to learn reporting, social media and photography skills; and/or software knowledge or the ability to learn media related programs. Ability to work independently. Must qualify to take English Comp 1 (or already have the class).