1. This document is considered an Addendum to the Full Academic Year Contract for Student Housing 2008-09. Please read and review all provisions of this document and the applicable provisions from the 2008-09 master contract. Students/residents must comply with the student housing guidelines, which are summarized in the "Student Housing Handbook." Failure to comply with the guidelines could be cause for removal from Student Housing and forfeiture of Deposit.
2. To reserve and contract space in SCCC Student Housing, the applicant must submit a $100 reservation/damage deposit with this Addendum, and a signed Full Academic Year Contract. It is understood that this deposit is refundable only upon satisfactory completion of contact which includes compliance with all of the student housing guidelines, and properly maintaining the condition of the room. The reservation/damage deposit will be refunded after the student properly checks out, returns the room key, and passes the room inspection by the Student Housing Manager. Charges will be assessed for all damages to the facility, furnishings, and/or equipment.
3. Rates for Summer 2008
The Student Living Center will be available for residency beginning May 17 and continuing through August 8 at the following rate for the room only (no meals are included with this summer contract):

Single Occupancy Room $100/week

Double Occupancy Room $80/week

If two students request double occupancy and agree to room together, then the rate will apply to each student; otherwise the student will be charged the single rate.

During the summer, food service is available for the noon meal only, Monday-Thursday, at a cost of $5.13; a 10-meal ticket is available for $42.75. Payment for daily meals or for the 10-meal ticket should be made out to Great Western Food Service. Food service will be closed May 17-June 2; July 4-6; and July 25-Aug. 10.

SCCC STUDENT SERVICES RESERVES THE RIGHT TO ASSIGN RESIDENTS TO ROOMS BASED ON AVAILABILITY.
